

I purchased XM service because of the continuous service I receive while on the road. A part of that service is News and Weather. As taxpaying American citizen, I feel that I have a right to listen to what I want as long as it doesn't interfere with the rights of others. If the other broadcasters want to complain, then make them provide the same service that I get from XM and then maybe I'll listen.